PRODUCE

Barbee Farms

Concord

A variety of fresh produce

Available this Week: Slightly cooler and lower humidity predicted Saturday! Sounds like a great day to visit the market! We will have peaches, canary melons, watermelon and cantaloupe, a variety of tomatoes, and sweet corn. Also available will be squash, zucchini, cucumbers, eggplant, green beans, new crop potatoes, okra, bell peppers (red and green), poblano peppers, jalapenos, onions, and a limited quantity of shelled pinkeye peas. New addition to our market tables this week will be the first of our fall squash! Don't forget to pick up some farm fresh eggs!

We are currently in peak growing season for many of your summer favorites. We, in the Barbee household, like to enjoy a taste of summer even during the winter months. Tommy and Anna will be talking about freezing, canning, and dehydrating (all easy methods of food preservation) during the chef demo segment of the market on Saturday. We will be happy to share our methods, give you links for online assistance, and supply bulk produce if you are interested.

Follow us on Instagram and Facebook for those last-minute additions to our market inventory!
